

Dear Blair Senior,

Since good readers make good writers and good readers make good thinkers, each student entering Montgomery Blair High School in August is required to complete reading and writing assignments in preparation for the fall semester.

The Particulars:

- Work counts towards 1st marking period.
- Work is due September 3rd or 4th. The deadline is September 8th or 9th.

Choosing a Book:

WRITING ASSIGNMENT

You will need to bring the novel you read to class with you.

The culminating writing activity will be completed in class. However, you are required to bring notes (guidelines below) with you to class on September 8th or 9th. You will turn these notes in to your teacher after the essay test.

guidelines for notes

COMPLETE FOR THE NOVEL YOU READ.

- Identify three (3) important qualities the main character displays.
- Choose three (3) important events for your character, one from the beginning, one from the middle, and one from the end of the novel. Write an analysis of each of the three events, explaining how the character displays the three qualities you have identified for him or her and what the significance of the event is for the character.

On each page of notes, record title and author of the work you are writing about. Submit work typed or handwritten neatly in blue or black ink.

Your notes will count in the HW for preparation category. The in-class writing assignment is a summative grade.

Dear Parents,

Reading is not only a life-long skill that a person needs to succeed as a student and a worker, but also an essential skill in civic and personal activities. Perhaps even more importantly, reading opens the world to a person through various forms of literature. Reading gives students the opportunity to learn about people, times, regions, and ideas that may enhance their knowledge and development. Reading also can bring a lifetime of pleasure.

Research strongly suggests that reading, like most skills, improves with practice and decreases when we neglect it for even a short time. Therefore, consistent with our commitment to prepare all students for success during school and after graduation, MCPS continues to expect all students to read during the summer.

In keeping with the belief that reading promotes students' mental growth, improves their capacity to process information, and enhances their ability to understand themselves and the world around them, students at Montgomery Blair will read, and respond—in writing—to the texts they read. Successful completion of the summer reading assignment will benefit your child as he or she progresses through our curriculum. We owe it to our students to prepare them for an increasingly competitive and complex world.

This summer reading information can also be obtained at <http://www.mbhs.edu>. Click on "Depts," and then go to "English."
